Background to the planned changes

1. What is the background to the planned changes? Why is this change being considered?

The Housing Act 2004 gave Local Housing Authorities the power to introduce Selective Licensing within part or all of their area.

The Council has produced a Housing Strategy which recognises that, amongst other things, there is limited social affordable housing available in the city, and that therefore the Private Rented Sector (PRS) will need to play a greater role in meeting housing needs in the city. We know that often, people from protected characteristic groups live in the PRS and therefore are affected by the issues related to this.

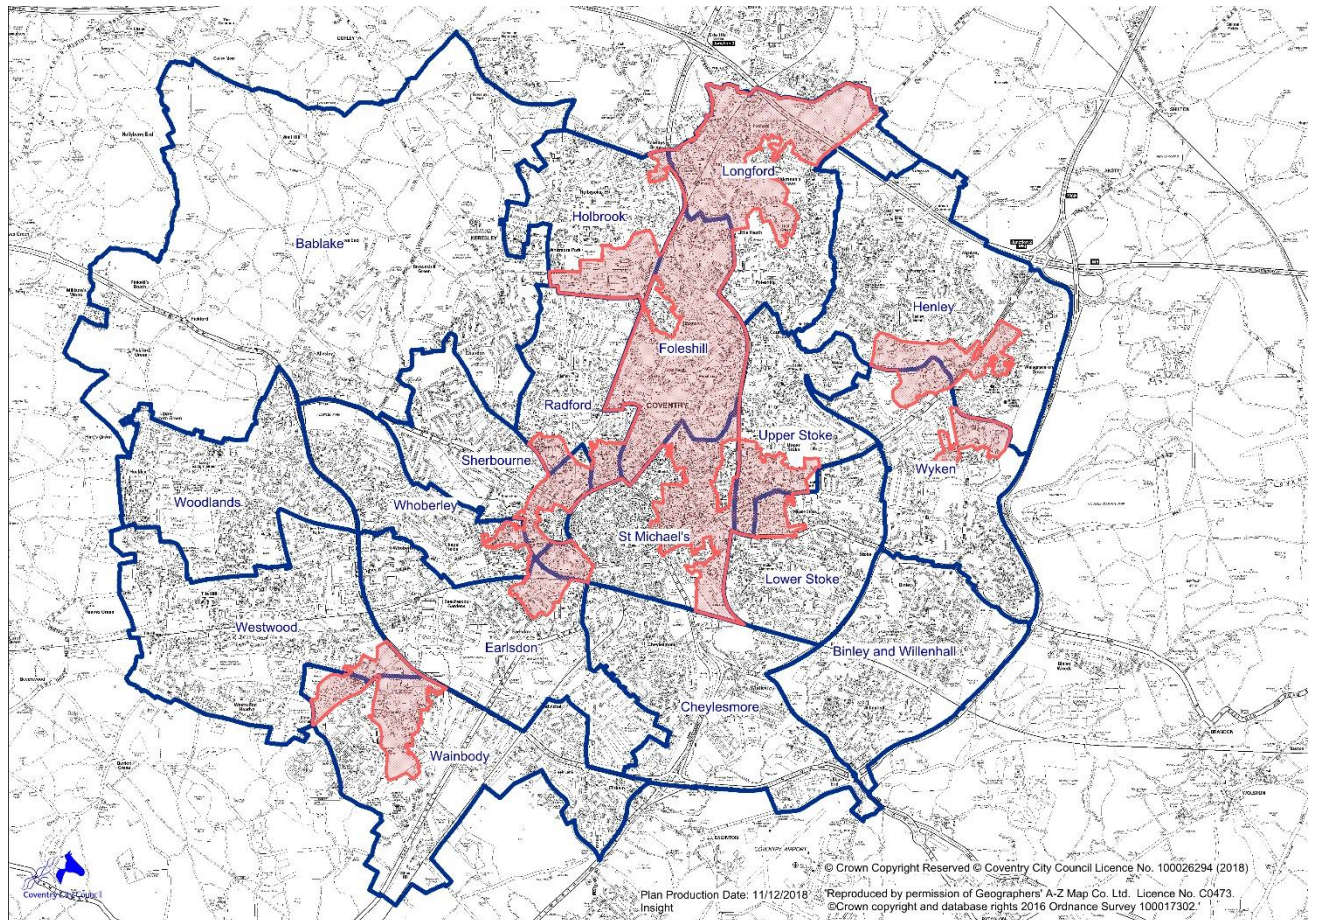

In areas where Selective licensing applies, landlords must apply for a licence if they want to rent out a property. This means the council can check whether they are a "fit or proper person" to be a landlord, as well as making other stipulations concerning management of the property and appropriate safety measures.

The Council acknowledges that many landlords provide decent, well-managed and well maintained accommodation, which does not cause any problems for the local community. There are, however, also properties that are poorly managed, suffer from overcrowding, or provide unsafe accommodation. These properties have a negative effect on the local area.

Coventry City Council is proposing to designate the areas identified in pink shown in Figure 1 (over), subject to Selective Licensing.

Analysis of Impact

- 4. Outline below how this proposal/review could impact on protected groups positively or negatively, and what steps/mitigations (if any) could be taken to reduce any negative impact that has been identified.

The positive and negative impacts in respect of protected characteristic groups are shown below. The proposals recognise that one of the City's strengths is its diversity and to ensure that there is equality and fairness for all. In this regard, we will adopt an inclusive and principally locality driven approach to the implementation of the licensing as well as focusing on the issues faced by protected characteristic groups.

Coventry City Council Equality and Consultation Analysis (ECA) Form

As part of the license application process, landlords will need to show that when carrying out their business they have not (amongst other things) practised unlawful discrimination and must meet license conditions on how they manage their properties. The licensing scheme should have a positive effect on anti-social behaviour and this may have a positive impact for protected characteristic groups.

Coventry is the second largest city in the region by population, with a population estimated to be in excess of 350,000. The city is also the 9th largest in England, and its population places it as the 12th largest in the UK.¹

Between 2012 and 2013, the city's population increased by over 2%. A significant number of migrants have contributed to the city's population, which is expected to continue into the future as Coventry will see steady population increases.

Census 2011 data suggests that Coventry's population has a much younger age profile than England in general; it is the younger population that is on the increase with a decline in the over 75's.

Age – The English Housing Survey 2016/17 (EHS) reported, that the PRS has now grown to 20%, up from 19% in 2013-14 and 11% in 2003 and that a larger proportion of 25- to 34-year-olds now rent their home.

Selective Licencing will have a positive effect on young people as rising house prices have seen many young people priced out of buying a home which is apparent from the results of the EHS which acknowledges that “While the under 35s have always been overrepresented in the private rented sector, over the last decade or so the increase in the proportion of such households in the private rented sector has been particularly pronounced. In 2006-07, 27% of those aged 25-34 lived in the private rented sector. By 2016-17 this had increased to 46%. Over the same period, the proportion of 25-34 year olds in owner occupation decreased from 57% to 37%. In other words, households aged 25-34 are more likely to be renting privately than buying their own home, a continuation of a trend first identified in 2012-13. As with those aged 35-44, the proportion of 25-34 year olds in the social rented sector did not change”.

The average age of Coventry's residents is 33 years, notably lower than the England average of 40 years, and is falling. In 2007 when the Coventry population started to grow the average age was 36 years. The young average age is partly because the City is home to two large universities - Coventry is one of the top 20 towns and cities in the UK in terms of the proportion of the population who are students (source: Census 2011).

Disability – Selective Licencing will have a positive effect on disabled people as tenants with disabilities often face particular problems when renting properties. They may particularly have problems with security of tenure. Landlords are reluctant to facilitate property adaptations. Tenants with health issues are also much more likely to be affected by problems with damp and housing disrepair issues and may face problems with getting repairs done more quickly. Disabled tenants are much more impacted by the cold and issues such as no heating or hot water affect them more. Disabled tenants who have assistance dogs also have more problems renting properties as these are seen as pets. Selective licencing will help to overcome these issues.

Gender reassignment - Although the proposals are not believed to have adverse impacts on this group, we do know that this is a group that experiences discrimination and this may impact on their ability to rent property

Marriage/Civil Partnership – There is not believed any impact on this group

Pregnancy/Maternity – Although it is not believed there is any significant impact on this group, people with children can find renting a property an issue.

Race – Property investment by the Asian community is widespread and often a means to support their families both within the UK and in Pakistan and India. There may be a negative impact on this group of Landlords as the cost of the scheme may affect their property portfolios.

However, Selective Licencing will have a positive effect on race as rented accommodation will be improved in the areas of selective licencing. This is significant as the Office for National Statistics (ONS) reported in 2014 that overall for the UK as a whole, the proportion of the population born outside of the UK was 13% (8.3 million of 63.7 million). In Coventry the figures for 2014/15 were reported to be 24% non UK born, almost twice the national average.

According to the 2011 Census, Coventry as a local authority has experienced the greatest migration since 2001 - second only to London.

The 2011 Census tells us that 1 in every 5 people living in Coventry (21%) were born outside the UK. People move in and out of the city every year, including students studying at the city's two universities from both the UK (37,580) as well as an estimated 19,160 overseas students (2016-2017 figures)². 14,035 students enrolled from Non-EU countries and 5,125 from EU countries. Therefore Selective Licencing will have a positive effect on those living in Coventry who were born outside the UK from different ethnic minorities and will add to measures that address migrant health issues that is a clear priority for the City's Marmot role.

Religion/belief –Some religions are unable to receive interest from investments and this proposal may impact on members of those religions.

Sex – There are not believed to be any specific impacts on this group. However, if landlords increase rents to cover the cost of the license, this will impact all renters.

Sexual orientation - Although the proposals are not believed to have adverse impacts on this group, we do know that this is a group that experiences discrimination and this may impact on their ability to rent property.

5. Are there any other vulnerable groups that could be affected?

Socio-economic - Selective Licencing will have a positive effect on people in lower socio-economic groups, those in routine/semi routine jobs and those who are long term unemployed or have never worked are often those most impacted by poor quality accommodation. They are also more likely to live in private rented accommodation.

However, this group could be negatively affected if landlords increase rent to cover the cost of the license or improvements required to comply. the Council has conducted some research into this area of increased rents and has made a comparison of rents from 2014- 2018 between areas in England that had discretionary licensing schemes and those that did not, in order to establish if there was any evidence to show that discretionary licensing increases rent.

As can be seen from Figure 2 below rental values increased in Coventry, on average by 19% between 2015 and 2018 compared to 11% in the West Midlands and 8% England over the same period. The increases in rent occurred in Coventry without the existence of a licensing scheme whilst lesser increases occurred across areas of the West Midlands where licensing is in operation – those shown in red (Wolverhampton 6%, Stoke 8%, Worcester 7% & Nottingham 7%). The evidence therefore suggests that despite the perception that licensing increase rents it is not the main contributing factor.

Coventry City Council Equality and Consultation Analysis (ECA) Form

Health – Selective Licencing will have a positive effect on health. It is well reported that poor housing conditions, including overcrowding and homelessness, are associated with an increased health risk, specifically of cardiovascular diseases, respiratory conditions and mental health problems. In Coventry, as of the 2011 census, 61% of homes were owner occupied (69% in 2001) and 17% were rented from the Housing Association or a Social Landlord (18% in 2001). In addition, 9.5% of housing was deemed overcrowded.

6. What are the gaps in evidence? Can this be addressed during the consultation stage?

There is limited data on inequalities in the private rented sector related to marriage/civil partnership issues. It is unlikely that additional data will be gathered on this during the consultation stage, this will be considered as part of future information gathering exercises.

7. What are the likely impacts of this project/review on staff from protected groups? None
