10.1 To be moved by Councillor Mutton and seconded by Councillor Bains:

"This Council welcomes the recently published Government White Paper regarding policing and in particular this Council welcomes the clearest message conveyed by the Government so far, that Directly Elected Commissioners will play no part in the future governance of our police.

This Council also welcomes the most generous financial increase in the Country from the Government for the West Midlands Police. We believe that the additional sums of money made available will help in the restructuring of the Force and in particular Local Command Units."
