11 Debates

11.1 To be moved by Councillor Lee and seconded by Councillor Blundell:

"This Council formally objects to the current proposals for High Speed 2, noting its route would bypass the city and have a massive effect on the current fast service both North and South served well by Coventry Station. It would also devastate the long term development plans for the City Centre. We agree to formally work with Warwick District Council in support of their objections."

11.2 To be moved by Councillor Kelly and seconded by Councillor Maton:

"This Council opposes the abolition of the Education Maintenance Allowance. This is a retrograde step which will negatively affect the ability of the poorest and most disadvantaged young people to access further education, and will impact negatively on attainment at all levels and also on access to higher education."
