Adult social care 1 complaint upheld	<ul> <li>There was some confusion by officers over the need to get a formal report from the Coroner on his investigation into Mrs A's death. This prolonged the Council's safeguarding investigation unnecessarily</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>The Ombudsman recommended that the Council apologise and ensure the relevant officers receive training in the role of the Coroner.</li> <li>(Remedy completed -apology sent and the training has been completed)</li> </ul>
Children's services 3 complaints upheld	<ul> <li>Miss B made several complaints about the Council's Children's Services and its involvement with her children.</li> <li>The Ombudsman found the Council was not at fault in the actions it took during its social work involvement with Miss B's children. There was also no fault in the actions taken during the stage 2 investigation into Miss B's complaint. However, there was fault in how long it took the Council to complete the statutory complaints procedure. The Council agreed to apologise to Miss B for the delay and pay her £100 to remedy injustice.         (Remedy completed -apology sent and £100 paid)     </li> </ul>	£100
	<ul> <li>Ms C complained she was not given support by Council which resulted in her children being removed from her care. She also complained that she was harassed by the Council following a court case that confirmed that the children should be returned home and the referral form sent when she moved into a new council area was flawed.</li> <li>The Ombudsman only investigated what happened after the court case and found fault Ms C should not have been asked to account for the bruising and a file note should also note that a reference to threatening with bleach is not based on clear evidence so should not have been included. The Council agreed to apologise, amend the file notes and write to the other council explain this error and ask it to amend the records accordingly.</li> <li>(All actions in remedy have been completed)</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>The complainant made several complaints regarding the Council's response to his concerns regarding his daughter.</li> <li>The Ombudsman found there were delays with the complaint process at Stage 2. However, the Ombudsman found no other fault in the Council's response to his complaint.         <ul> <li>(Remedy completed – apology sent and complaint team and staff were reminded</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

The Council's monitoring also appeared to have failed to prevent the problem continuing. Mr G had to report further missed collections and he has had to take his own refuse to the waste collection site. The Ombudsman recommended and the Council agreed to pay Mr G £50 and monitor his collection for 6 weeks. (Remedy- Monitoring completed and payment made)  • Ms H complained the Council had failed to collect her refuse properly for 6 months. When she reported it the Council often failed to collect until the next collection day.  - The Ombudsman found fault by the Council because it had not collected Ms H's refuse regularly. The Council agreed to monitor her collection for 6 weeks. (Remedy-Monitoring completed)  • The Ombudsman found the Council was at fault when it failed to collect the refuse from Mr I's home address and the Stage 2 response to the complaint was inadequate.  - The Council agreed to write an apology, give an update about reinstating the double yellow lines close to the complainant's home and monitor the collection for the next 6 months to ensure weekly collections are taking place. (Remedy- apology sent, yellow lines have been reinstated and collections monitored for 6 months)  • Mrs J received assisted collections in November she complained to the Ombudsman as the Council had failed to collect her refuse properly.  • While investigating the issues the complainant reported early December that there was no improvement. Late January the complainant reported that there had been no problems since Christmas 2017. The Ombudsman completed his investigation as the earlier faults had been resolved.  (No Remedy – after the final decision we did miss Mrs J collection again)  • Ms K complained the Council failed to complete her assisted waste collections were missed.	£50
