Cabinet Member for Public Health and Sport

Monday 17th December 2018

Report 4 Petition – Indoor bowls reprovion – Identify an alternative site for indoor bowls in Coventry

Recommendations:

The Cabinet Member for Public Health and Sport is recommended to:

1. Consider the petitions and e-petitions submitted, requesting the Council to reassess and identify a more suitable and affordable site for the proposed re-provisioning of a six rink indoor bowls development to the Avenue Bowls Club, and note the petitioners concerns.
2. Note that a feasibility study into the 18 other sites suggested by local residents has been undertaken and shows The Avenue Bowls Club to be the most suitable and affordable site for indoor bowls relocation within the agreed set criteria.

3. Refer the petitions and e-petitions that relate to planning matters to Planning Committee to be considered as part of the determination of the relevant planning application

The above recommendations were approved
