M Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

Written training will be provided to all staff regards basic Licensing Act requirements. This will be updated every 6 months. The premise will use refusals register and all staff will be aware of where to find it. This would cover incidents of violence, theft, suspected under-age, refused entries or refusing to sell to a drunken person. Alcohol Authorisations will be in place for any time I am not at the premises.

During outside garden events there will never be a time that there is not a staff member outside, this allows monitoring of the event at all times.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Even though I open at 9am, alcohol sales would never commence until at least 11am. If a sale is requested before 11am it will be noted in the refusals register.

CCTV recording are available at the premises inside and outside (front of prems, back garden, and back room). It records for a minimum of 28 days, and I am happy to make it available to responsible Authorities and Licensing officers upon request.

SIA will not be required as I close at 10pm, and all events are low key and prebooked/ticket events so I know the customer demographic.

c) Public safety

Off sales are allowed, but I only to cater for those that have bought a full bottle of wine (for instance) and wish to take the remaining amount home with them. Any off sales will be required to accompany a food order.

It is our intention to use 'outdoor glassware' for drinks in the garden area. This is a plastic range, that looks like glassware, but is not glass and does not shatter.

We have a play area in the garden, children must always be accompanied by a responsible adult whilst they are in the play area.

For any garden evening events, the play equipment will be secured to one side to allow more room for guests.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Event evenings are ticket in advance and catering for smaller audiences. I am selling nice wines, craft beers and a selection of alcohol that caters to the more expensive end of the market. I close my premises by 10pm as I am aware that I have upstairs neighbours that I have no desire to antagonise. Customers are reminded to leave quietly.

Recorded music will be background only. Any rare instances live music I provide at the premises will be covered by deregulation. I would notify neighbours in advance and provide a telephone number in case any issues were to arise.

e) The protection of children from harm

Challenge 25 will operate at the venue. All staff are trained in Challenge 25, and posters will be displayed. A refusals register will be used to note all incidents and refusals of sale of alcohol. Children are allowed on the premises as long as they are accompanied by a responsible adult. For all organised evening events children are not permitted after 5pm except for very occasional circumstance, for instance a private family party.

Staff will be trained on proxy sales.

13. Where there is more than one applicant, each of the applicants or their respective agent must sign the application form.
14. This is the address which we shall use to correspond with you about this application.
15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be issued to an individual or an individual in a partnership which is not a limited liability partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have the right to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

They do this in one of two ways:

- 1) by providing with this application, copies or scanned copies of the documents which an applicant has provided, to demonstrate their entitlement to work in the UK (which do not need to be certified) as per information published on gov.uk and in guidance.
- 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Home Office online right to work checking service.

As an alternative to providing a copy of original documents, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth, will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be shared digitally. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copies of documents as set out above.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.
